

The Monizetta Ball.

Decorations and musicals in keeping with the dancing were the main features of the ball, which was held in the Alameda room. The hotel was transformed into a scene of splendor and the room was effectively decorated for the occasion. The fountain was brilliant illuminated with some 1,000 lights of green, red, and yellow, and tables where refreshments were served during the evening were arranged around the central Japanese lanterns were strung from the corners of the court to the center fountain. During the assembly of the 350 guests H. E. Davis, chairman of the executive committee and general manager presided. In the ballroom from an enclosure of immense pains forming an alcove a wonderfully inspiring orchestra, consisting of twelve pieces announced music for the day dances. The grand march, led by Governor and Mrs. McDonald, took place at 10 o'clock. Dances intertwined with southern waltzes and massive palms around the ball room and veranda, lent grace and dignity to the setting. An elegant supper was served at 12 noon in the dining room, which was exquisitely appointed.

It was with reluctance that the dancers made their exit from the ball room, drawing to a close the most brilliant event of the season.

The following were patrons of the affair: Messieurs J. B. Herndon, Lawrence Lee, D. S. Rosenwald, Isaac Martin, H. K. Wylder, Jos Kircher, C. Manning, E. J.
